

How my thinking changed

Keep one earlier piece of work beside you. A notebook entry or a clearly labelled remembered attempt is fine. If you cannot remember, say so.

You do not have to claim improvement. You can explain an idea that has not changed yet or a difficulty you still have.

Piece of work / topic: _____

1. Choose one earlier answer. Copy the part you would change, then write your answer now.

Earlier answer:

Answer now:

2. Which observation, example or explanation changed your thinking? Explain what it helped you notice or understand.

3. What will you do differently when you meet a similar task? Give one action and say when you would use it.

Be specific: name the idea, the evidence and your next action.
